- 8:00 – 10:00 a.m. Big Diesel Hybrid – I wonder. . . Is it possible?:
Dave Clabour, Horizon Center
- With the challenges that are facing the trucking and construction industry there comes many adventures and challenges. Some of these adventures have become reality and we need to be prepared.
- With all the changes that are happening in the auto industry one wonders what is happening in the Big Diesel world. With the fuel challenges that are facing the diesel industry many manufactures are working on or now producing a Hybrid vehicle.
- A semi truck that is now a diesel electric hybrid.
- A front end loader that is now a diesel electric hybrid.
- Who will be there to fix them?
- 10:20 – 12:00 p.m. Safety: Ryan Ellis – Zurich
Accidents are an increasingly prevalent problem in dealerships. Most are easily preventable. Awareness and proper education of future technicians can help prevent a wide range of common injuries. This session will be a Socratic-style seminar focusing on common safety and accident issues within a dealership. Specific attention will be paid to both the front and back ends of the dealership. Participants should be prepared to draw upon and share their knowledge of common and preventable accidents. Vivid graphics of actual common problems in the service department will be displayed to facilitate discussion.
